"Jim Chirstianson then said that, he can no longer accept without question the positions of the S.W.P. Now, he said, that the S.W.P. has accepted Pabloism it has also accepted an incorrect position on the relationship of World Forces.

"He said that scince he has taken the position that he feels that he must be organizationally independent.

"Excactly what is ment by 'organizationally independ~~nt~~'. wansn't made clear it seemed that he ment that he would remain a Troskyite but would not be a member of the S.W.P. or have any thing to do with it."

In conjunction with the above, BS 811-S on 1/6/64 provided a typewritten letter he had received from PHYLLIS SAWYER reporting on the 12/30/63 SWP meeting. It is noted that while BS 811-S did not attend this meeting, PHYLLIS SAWYER and her husband ALAN did. This letter is signed by SAWYER and is being routed to 1A of 134-493.

BS 811-S has provided reliable information in the past and the utmost care must be utilized in paraphrasing this information prior to dissemination in order to protect his identity. This letter, in part, stated as follows:

"Youth Report: The YSA is continuing to maintain its membership at a time when many campus organizations have folded-- Student Peace Union, Young People's Socialist League, etc.--due to their loose structure, flabby ideas and in some instances, state of shock because of the assassination of the President.

"Most of the membership of the YSA has been recruited since 1960 and most of that since 1962!

"Chicago: This is one of our most dynamic branches due to the devotion of its youth.

"In order to be considered a contact of the YSA or the party, you must be selling Militant subs and making financial contributions.

"The people recruited thus have served an apprenticeship and are solid. 23 people were recruited in this last year.
